HEAR FROM STUDENTS

- ▶ “My experience as a dialogue facilitator has thought me to become an effective communicator. By truly being a present and active listener, it allows for a fruitful productive community in dialogue. I've learned that it's about being honest and understanding as well as respecting the unique differences and commonality's we all have. Facilitating has also improved my manner of self-reflection. As I work on connecting with myself I am in a better position to connect with others. Ubuntu- I am because we are, my humanity is tied to yours.”
